

Communication Program

Purpose Statement

The Communication program aims to develop majors who can communicate in a variety of media with diverse audiences. Students who complete the major in communication can expect to develop

- Confidence and competence in public presentations.
- Effective, productive, and ethical communication skills for building personal and organizational relationships.
- Knowledge about the mass media and how those media affect how we communicate.
- Knowledge of how advertising and publicity messages are used and the ability to craft such messages.
- Skill in using communication technology and in evaluating how technology affects communication.
- The ability to effectively communicate within and across gender and cultures.
- Strategies for effectively managing conflict.
- Competence in constructing and analyzing arguments intended to influence beliefs, attitudes, values, and practices.
- Knowledge of theories that explain interpersonal, organizational, and mass mediated communication, and competence in systematic inquiry, including an understanding of the limitations of conclusions.
- Strategies to collect accurate information through observation, interviews, and research.
- Skill in obtaining still images, audio, and video, and combining these media with text to tell compelling stories.
- Ability to recognize and correct errors in standard written English and in improving the style and structure of written texts.
- Competence in designing, laying out, and publishing content online and in print.
