

Business Program

Purpose Statement

The department commits itself to fostering students' learning so that they are prepared for professional pursuits and/or graduate study.

The department achieves this purpose when its graduates are proficient in the following outcomes.

- Students will apply and demonstrate business principles and concepts of the functional areas of business.
- Students will research and analyze information, including data, related to one's field of study.
- Students will perform effectively in groups.
- Students will communicate effectively orally, visually and in writing in a manner relevant to the field and intended audience.
- Students will understand demands and challenges facing businesses in a global environment.

One major, two interdisciplinary majors, and a minor are available within the Department of Business Administration. Within the Business Administration major, there are four emphasis areas, and a student must choose at least one area in which to concentrate their study: Management, Marketing, Finance, and Accounting.
